Purpose

The purpose of the church building committee for the Old Sanctuary Building is to determine if the structure should be renovated or replaced with a new structure.

Function:

1. The committee will determine a chair and vice-chair and other officers as needed.
2. Once the Building Committee for the old sanctuary building has determined if the structure should be renovated or replaced, the committee should bring their recommendation to the church for action.
3. After the church has taken action, the committee will plan for renovation/rebuilding as directed by the church
