Purpose

The purpose of the Financial Committee for the Old Building is to explore means of financing the renovation or replacement of the old building.

Function:

1. The committee will determine a chair and vice-chair and other officers as needed.
2. The Financial Committee for the Old Building should explore means for raising funds as soon as possible.
3. The committee should work with the Finance Committee as they work toward their recommendations.
4. The committee should bring their recommendations for financing the renovation/rebuilding to the church for action.
